

CHAPTER 16

LOOKING FORWARD

16.1 The EAC is fully committed to ensuring that all public elections in Hong Kong are conducted in accordance with the law. It will continue with its efforts in upholding the transparency, fairness and honesty of each election. The EAC is always receptive to positive and constructive suggestions from the public to bring about improvements to future elections.

16.2 The Commission wishes to recommend that this report be made public, at a time the CE thinks fit, so as to enable members of the public to be kept in the picture as to how the preparation and conduct of the elections were carried out.
