

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION

Section 1 : The Electoral Affairs Commission

1.1 The Electoral Affairs Commission (“EAC”) is an independent and apolitical body established under section 3 of the Electoral Affairs Commission Ordinance (“EACO”) (Cap. 541), with the primary objective of upholding openness, honesty and fairness in public elections.

Section 2 : Responsibility of the EAC

1.2 Under section 4(a) of the EACO, one of the functions of the EAC is to consider or review the boundaries of geographical constituencies (“GCs”) for the purpose of making recommendations on the boundaries and names of GCs for a Legislative Council (“LegCo”) general election.

1.3 Under section 18 of the EACO, the EAC is required to submit to the Chief Executive (“CE”) a report on the recommendations for the delineation of the GCs and the names proposed for each constituency in relation to a LegCo general election not more than 36 months from the preceding general election. As the last general election of the LegCo was held on 7 September 2008, the EAC is required to submit the report for the 2012 LegCo Election to the CE by 6 September 2011.

Section 3 : Scope of the Report

1.4 The scope and content of this report are based on the requirements stipulated under section 18 of the EACO. The report is published in two volumes. Volume 1 primarily describes the process of drawing up the delineation proposals of GC boundaries and sets out the EAC's recommendations on the boundaries and the names of the GCs with the reasons for its recommendations. It also includes a complete record of all the written and oral representations made to the EAC. Volume 2 contains the list of recommended GCs and maps showing the recommended boundaries and names of the GCs.
