

Section 8 – Epilogue

8.1 The Commission is always ready to keep a close watch over the conduct of elections, be they general elections or by-elections. The Commission will keep on upholding the principle that all elections are conducted in an open, honest and fair manner.

8.2 The Commission would like to recommend that this report be made public, at a time the Chief Executive thinks fit, so that there will be full transparency of how the EAC has performed its functions under the EAC Ordinance.
